

Since last month we have had some great feedback from those using the FAME toolkit. We have picked out just a few of the many highlights here;

Moving Forward

Over the past month FAME has really been moving forwards with some exciting new developments and decisions

Learn More

Understanding the implications of the Child Index for the Voluntary Sector

Barnardo's UK have successfully used the FAME framework to support their information sharing in regards to the Child Index. Julie Moller, Assistant Director of Children's Services for Barnardo's, North East, tells us more

Learn More

Using the Readiness Assessment tool in a Children's Trust Pathfinder

Andy Roberts, Newcastle City Council, writes about how FAME has aided the Pathfinder Children's Trust.

Learn More

Applying FAME to Local Government transformation

Newcastle City Council has played a major part in moving FAME forward. Two of the Council's senior figures Ray Ward and John Littleton tell us what FAME means to them as a Local Authority.

Learn More

Principles of FAME supporting older people in the South East

Woking Borough Council have been working with the FAME programme and explain a bit more about what it has to offer to them as a Local Authority tackling multi-agency working.

Learn More

Come and meet the FAME team!

FAME will be at the annual local e-gov EXPO National Conference and Exhibition in April and we'd love to see you there!

Learn More